When: Wed 11 Nov 2026, 14:00–15:00 · Where: Summit Studio C · Type: Roundtable · Updated: Wed 11 Nov 2026

Flags: Finance-sensitive · Partner ask likely

OBJECTIVE

Position Singapore as a practical partner for scalable, high-integrity transition finance.

tone

Pragmatic, partnership-oriented.

COUNTERPART

Finance ministers & MDBs

Roundtable participants · Multilateral

Portfolio: Transition finance · blended finance · MDB reform

Public background: Multilateral development banks and finance ministries publish transition-finance materials and communiqués publicly.

Public sources: Partner public communiqués

MAIN TALKING POINTS

1. Stress credible taxonomies and high-integrity transition plans as the basis for scaling finance.
2. Point to regional capacity-building and blended finance as concrete collaboration.
3. Invite partners into a practical post-COP workplan.

WATCH POINT — THE ONE THING TO AVOID

Do not announce new funding or quantified commitments.

IF ASKED / PRESSED

Offer officials-level follow-up on specific project pipelines.

ANTICIPATED QUESTIONS

Q1. Is Singapore pledging capital today? [BOTH]

Why it may come up: The roundtable format and partners' 'mobilisation' calls may invite a quantified pledge.

- » No new funding or numbers today; offer pipeline follow-up. [INTERNAL]
- » Partners publicly emphasise mobilising investment at scale (indicative). [PUBLIC]

Q2. What makes a transition plan 'credible' to Singapore? [PUBLIC]

Why it may come up: The integrity of transition finance is a repeated public theme.

- » Use the brief's language on credible taxonomies and high-integrity plans. INTERNAL

INDICATIVE PUBLIC-DOMAIN NOTES (TENTATIVE — FOR THE ASK FALLBACK)

- » Public materials discuss large mobilisation targets in general terms, but no figure is agreed — do not cite a number. [keywords: how much, number, figure, amount, pledge, committed]
