Coalition-sensitive

Hold the line

OBJECTIVE

Coordinate a joint coalition push to hold the line on mitigation ambition in the cover text.

TONE

Collegial, energising, unity-focused.

COUNTERPART

High Ambition Coalition

Coalition ministers · Cross-regional grouping

Portfolio: Mitigation ambition · cover decision

Public background: A cross-regional grouping that periodically issues joint ministerial statements; membership and statements are public.

Public sources: Coalition joint statements

MAIN TALKING POINTS

1. Reaffirm Singapore's commitment to keeping 1.5°C within reach in the cover text.
2. Propose the coalition speak with one voice against watering down mitigation language.
3. Offer Singapore to help bridge with implementation-focused parties.

WATCH POINT — THE ONE THING TO AVOID

Avoid signing onto any collective finance pledge on the coalition's behalf.

IF ASKED / PRESSED

Singapore supports ambition and can help broker, but keeps its own finance envelope.

ANTICIPATED QUESTIONS

Will Singapore co-sign a coalition statement calling for a finance figure? BOTH

Why it may come up: Coalition statements often bundle mitigation with finance asks; the mandate keeps the two separate.

- Can co-sign mitigation-ambition language; not a specific finance figure. INTERNAL
- Coalition partners have publicly pushed headline finance numbers (indicative). PUBLIC

Can Singapore bridge to the parties resisting stronger language? INTERNAL

Why it may come up: Singapore's 'ambition + implementation' framing positions it as a natural bridge-builder.

- Offer good offices; report any opening to the delegation lead. INTERNAL

INDICATIVE PUBLIC-DOMAIN NOTES (TENTATIVE — FOR THE ASK FALLBACK)

- The High Ambition Coalition periodically issues public joint statements; treat specific membership claims as indicative unless confirmed.
