Endgame

OBJECTIVE

Deliver a closing intervention supporting a balanced final package that is ambitious and implementable.

TONE

Confident, steady, constructive.

COUNTERPART

All delegations

Closing plenary · Multilateral setting

Portfolio: Heads of delegation and ministers

Public background: Closing plenary; all interventions are on the public record and broadcast.

Public sources: Conference public programme

MAIN TALKING POINTS

1. Welcome the overnight progress and thank the presidency for bridge-building.
2. Stress that durable outcomes need practical implementation pathways.
3. Signal readiness to join consensus on a balanced final package.

WATCH POINT — THE ONE THING TO AVOID

Avoid naming any delegation as blocking progress.

IF ASKED / PRESSED

Refer drafting detail to negotiators; restate support for a balanced package.

ANTICIPATED QUESTIONS

Are you signalling that ambition should be diluted? PUBLIC

Why it may come up: The emphasis on implementation can be read publicly as softening ambition.

- Ambition and implementation are complementary, not a trade-off. INTERNAL

Will Singapore block consensus if the package is weak? BOTH

Why it may come up: Endgame interventions are scrutinised for veto signals.

- Emphasise constructive intent; do not signal a veto. INTERNAL

- Media watch closing statements for blocking signals (indicative). PUBLIC
